Billy Butler had 5 hits and 4 RBI and Jake Peavy completed the game without help from the bullpen as the Rochester Redbirds bested the Homestead Grays 9 to 1 at Wally Hitt Field.

The home town fans were very appreciative of the fine hitting performance provided by Butler. He lifted one out of the park for a two run home run in the 2nd inning, laced a one-base hit in the 4th inning, lined a single bringing in a run in the 5th inning, ripped a base-hit in the 7th inning and doubled which brought home a run in the 8th inning. Rochester managed 12 hits in their victory.

Peavy(1-1) lasted until the end allowing 1 run for the win. Gavin Floyd(1-1) was tagged with the loss. He was hit hard and gave up 9 hits and 3 walks in 6 and 1/3 innings.

'I was in my hotel room the other night, working on my swing and made some adjustments,' Butler said. 'I'm always working on it. If they are getting you out certain ways, you've got to make changes.'
