David Wright hit one over the fence and had 2 RBI as the Homestead Grays bested the Charleston Low Sox in 10 innings 3 to 2 at Josh Gibson Field.

The game was deadlocked at 2 after nine full innings. Homestead won the game in the 10th inning. After an out was recorded, Wright drew a walk. Wright then stole second base. Jose Bautista then was walked intentionally. DeLmon Young followed and he stroked a one-base hit resulting in a mighty exciting win for Homestead and the 45,168 home town fans in attendance. Neither team was able to score until the 6th inning.

Francisco Rodriguez(1-0) got the win allowing no runs in 1 and 1/3 innings. Jake Westbrook(0-1) absorbed the loss in relief. He surrendered 1 run and 2 hits in 2 and 1/3 innings.

Melky Cabrera had 2 base hits as the Charleston Low Sox defeated the Homestead Grays 4 to 3 at Josh Gibson Field.

Charleston jumped on top to stay in the top of the 4th inning scoring one runner. Darren O'Day pitched a perfect ninth and was credited with his 1st save.

Bronson Arroyo(1-0) went 6 and 2/3 innings allowing 3 runs for the victory. Clayton Richard(0-1) took the loss. He got hit hard, allowing 9 hits and 2 walks in 5 and 1/3 innings.

'I always am most impressed when a pitcher finds a way to win even without his best stuff,' Jeff Meyer said after the game. 'Arroyo did not have command of his pitches most of the night, but he proved he really knew how to pitch!'

Mark Teixeira connected with a 'big fly' and had 3 RBI as the Homestead Grays outscored the Charleston Low Sox 6 to 3.

Homestead tallied 3 runs in the top of the 6th inning. The key offensive moment was provided by Teixeira who disappointed the partisan crowd when he lofted a three-run bomb. Homestead took care of Charleston with no trouble in the bottom of the 9th.

Gavin Floyd(1-0) got credit for the victory, pitching 5 innings and allowing 3 runs. Francisco Rodriguez recorded his 1st save. David Price(0-1) was the loser. He allowed 3 homeruns in 6 innings of work.

Jose Bautista smacked 2 homeruns and had 4 RBI and Roy Oswalt struck out 11 batters at Sumter Park as the Homestead Grays beat the Charleston Low Sox 7 to 1.

Bautista enjoyed a big evening at the plate. He smacked a three-run homer in the 1st inning and delivered a solo blast in the 6th inning. Homestead had 11 hits for the night while Charleston had 3.

The winning pitcher was Oswalt(1-0) who allowed 1 run in 6 and 2/3 innings. Shaun Marcum(0-1) took the loss. He pitched 7 innings allowing 8 hits and 1 walk.

'He was really impressive tonight,' Marcum said of his counterpart. 'Our guys were just swinging at air.'
