In a game for the baseball purist, C.C. Sabathia(1-0) and Dallas Braden(0-1) squared off in a tense pitching duel, Casper Giants finally emerged victorious over Montpelier Pioneers, 1 to 0.

Montpelier pitcher Braden gave up the game's only run in the bottom of the 3rd inning. The early run support proved sufficient for Sabathia and Casper. That was all the run support Sabathia required. Montpelier threatened in the 9th but their rally came up short.

Mariano Rivera earned the save, his 1st. 'This was a tough loss,' said David Bruneau, 'the kind that sticks with you for awhile.'

Pettitte got relief help from Edward Mujica who gained credit for his 1st save. 'You have to give Casper credit, they fought us tough to the end' David Bruneau said. 'It could have gone either way, but I'm glad we pulled out the victory.'

The difference in the game was the offensive outburst by Casper in the 8th inning as they erupted for 7 runs on 6 hits. The key at-bat was by Kevin Youkilis who quieted the home crowd when he blasted a Grand Slam homerun. Montpelier tried unsuccessfully to come back in the 9th.

Joakim Soria(1-0) went 1 and 1/3 innings allowing no runs for the win. Mariano Rivera gained credit for his 2nd save. Robinson Tejada(0-1) was the losing pitcher in relief. He was unable to retire a batter and surrendered 2 hits and no walks.

'It was a tough one to lose' said David Bruneau 'We'll get them next time out.'
