Jermaine Dye rocketed 2 homeruns and had 6 RBI as the Brooklyn Trolleydodgers defeated the Montpelier Pioneers by the score of 9 to 4 at The New Ebbets Field.

Dye was spectacular at the plate. The hometown fans showed their appreciation with a standing ovation his last time at bat. He smacked a three-run homer in the 1st inning, belted a three-run homer (his 3rd of the season) in the 4th inning and banged out a single in the 7th inning. Brooklyn had 8 hits for the night.

The victory went to Randy Johnson(1-0) who went 7 innings, allowing 3 runs. Jair Jurrjens(0-1) was the losing pitcher. He allowed 5 hits and 3 walks in 2 and 2/3 innings.

Dye was in a good mood after the game, 'I'm just seeing and hitting the ball real well now. I made some adjustments last week and they are paying off. That's what this game is about. making adjustments as the season goes along.'

Ian Kinsler blasted 2 homeruns and had 6 RBI at Buck Field as the Montpelier Pioneers pulled off a dramatic comeback beating the Brooklyn Trolleydodgers by the count of 11 to 8.

Montpelier erupted with the game winning runs in the 9th inning scoring 6 runners on 4 hits. The key offensive moment was provided by Miguel Cabrera who came through for the home fans when he smacked a three-run homer (his 2nd of the season). Despite losing, Brooklyn out-hit Montpelier 14 to 10.

Scott Linebrink(1-0) picked up the victory, allowing no runs in 1 inning. Hong-Chih Kuo(0-1) was the loser in relief. 'Now there is a lesson in perseverance for you,' Kinsler noted. 'It was looking pretty dim there for a while, but we just kept plugging away and it really paid off in spades! And it was great to see the crowd go crazy there at the end!'

The Montpelier Pioneers nipped the Brooklyn Trolleydodgers 3 to 2 at Buck Field in a hard fought contest.

Montpelier had 1 run cross the plate in the bottom of the 7th inning. Xavier Nady doubled. Ian Kinsler was a strikeout victim, unable to help out. Miguel Cabrera was next to the plate, but was promptly struck out. Brian McCann followed and he lined a base-hit. Kevin Kouzmanoff got his chance to keep things going, but he went down on strikes. Brooklyn threatened in the 9th but Montpelier was able to put down the rally.

The victory was credited to Chad Durbin(1-0) who went 2 innings, allowing no runs. Scott Linebrink earned the save, his 1st. Dan Wheeler(0-1) was the losing pitcher in relief. He struck out 4 batters in 1 and 2/3 innings despite losing the game.

'Just one or two mistakes were all it took to beat us tonight' Russell Young said. 'We take these games one day at a time, but this one was hard to take.'

Scott Rolen had 4 hits at The New Ebbets Field as the Brooklyn Trolleydodgers beat the Montpelier Pioneers by the count of 6 to 5.

Brooklyn won the game with a run in the bottom of the 8th inning. After two were out Omar Vizquel drew a walk. Vizquel took off for second and slid in with a stolen base. Rolen then doubled. Montpelier had a chance to come back in the 9th but they came up short.

Hong-Chih Kuo(1-1) got the win allowing no runs in 1 and 2/3 innings. Andy Pettitte(0-1) suffered the loss in relief. He gave up no hits and 1 walk in 2/3 of an inning.

Tim Wakefield(1-0), with relief help from Hong-Chih Kuo, throttled Montpelier while the Brooklyn Trolleydodgers scored 7 runs in an evening game at The New Ebbets Field.

Brooklyn drew first blood jumping out to an early lead in the first inning scoring a single run. That scoring would be all that was needed. Brooklyn had 11 hits overall, while Montpelier had 4.

Kuo recorded the save, his 2nd. Jesse Litsch(0-1) ended up with the loss. He allowed 4 runs and 7 hits in 6 and 2/3 innings.
