Top 9th: Orlando Cabrera robbed Scott Rolen of a base hit.

Left fielder Garret Anderson had 2 base hits as the Charleston Low Sox topped the Brooklyn Trolleydodgers by a score of 3 to 2 at Sumter Park.

Charleston brought 2 runs across the plate in the bottom of the 7th inning when they had 3 base hits. The key at-bat was by Pat Burrell who electrified Sumter Park when he lifted one out of the park for a two run home run (his 6th of the season). Brooklyn had a chance in the 9th but they came up short.

Greg Smith(3-1) picked up the victory, allowing 1 run in 8 innings. Jose Arredondo earned his 5th save. Tim Wakefield(1-3) was the loser. He pitched 6 and 1/3 innings giving up 5 hits and 1 walk.

The Charleston ballclub's record now stands at a league leading 11-6. With the loss, Brooklyn has a record of 5-5 lately, 11-9 overall.

WEB GEMS- Top 3rd: Orlando Cabrera robbed Dustin Pedroia of a base hit.

Ervin Santana mowed down 12 Brooklyn batters as the Charleston Low Sox topped the Brooklyn Trolleydodgers by a score of 2 to 1 at Sumter Park.

Santana(3-1) contributed a very nicely pitched game. He allowed only 6 hits and 2 walks in 8 innings lowering his ERA from 4.45 to 3.76. Both teams ended up with 6 hits on the night.

Jose Arredondo earned his 6th save. Hong-Chih Kuo(2-2) was tagged with the loss in relief. Russell Young was upset after the game. 'I don't like to complain but did you see that umpires strike zone?', he said. 'Maybe they ought to start calling the strike zone the way it's printed in the rule book.'
